Dear Editor :—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. Our revival has closed. Sixty-nine souls have been gathered into the fold. Brother Roger Darling is our pastor. I like him very well. This evening we gathered to organize a K. C. I think it will be very nice. Mama and I both belong to the Brethren Church. My papa died when I was five and one-half years old. We live all alone, but we feel that we have a Father in heaven who cares for us. I am eleven years old. I go to school. My teacher is Mr. Carney. I will ask a question. Whom did Jesus first appear to after he rose from the dead? I hope this will escape the waste basket.

LELVIN FINDLEY.

(You have written a very nice letter. It should have been printed earlier, but we had too many letters to print all of them. We should be pleased to hear from you again.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—Find enclosed twenty cents. I am twelve years old and go to school. I take seven studies. I will answer Emma Cook's question. Solomon's mother was Bathsheba. I will ask two questions. In what book in the Bible does it read as though Christ were born under an apple tree? In what war did Saul sin against God?

GROVER BARKDOLL.

Leitersburg, Md.

(Accept our thanks for the enclosed twenty cents.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—I will try to help to fill the children's page. I go to Sunday-school every Sunday that I can. My teacher is Mrs. U. M. Beachly. I like her very well. I belong to the Brethren Church. Our pastor is Rev. J. C. Mackey. I hope the children will keep their page filled with letters. I love to read the letters. Enclosed find twenty cents for the Chicago Mission.

MAGGIE E. MILLER.

(Accept our thanks for the amount sent for Chicago Mission.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—I read a call in the Children's Department for two hundred children to send ten cents each to send tracts and the EVANGELIST to Brother McFaden. I am acquainted with Brother McFaden. He was our pastor at one time. Brother J. H. Knepper is our present pastor. He is a very good pastor. Please find enclosed a dime to help Brother McFaden in his work.

LIZZIE E. SCHROCK,

(We thank you very much for the amount for Chicago Mission.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—I was appointed by the teacher of the Junior K. C. to write a letter for our page.

I think the society is doing a grand work. The Junior K. C. is going to give three dollars for the Chicago Mission. We expect to give an entertainment soon; perhaps on Thanksgiving evening. Brother Talley was here during the Convention and preached an excellent sermon for us. He also gave us a pleasant call at our home. If all the little girls and boys could have the privilege of meeting Brother Talley they would know why the K. C. is such an excellent paper.

(Your letter should have been printed several weeks ago, but we had a great many letters and could not find space for many of them.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—As I have not written a letter for a long time, I will now try to write a few lines. I am going to school now. I take ten studies. We do not have Brethren Sunday-school here now, and I attend the Baptist. I will try to answer some questions. There are four books in the Bible that have but one chapter, viz., Obadiah, Philemon, Third John and Jude. There are one hundred and fifty Psalms. Jesus lived in Nazareth when a child. Solomon's mother was Bathsheba. I will ask some questions. What was Samson's riddle? Who was about to be killed for eating some honey? I send a dime for Chicago Mission.

VERNIE E. FREELAND.

Terra Alta, W. Va.

(You have answered all of the questions correctly except one. Second John has but one chapter. You did not mention it. Accept our thanks for your dime.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—This is my first attempt to write for the children's column. I go to Sunday-school every Sunday that I can. My teacher is Miss Annie Beachly. I like her very much. I have one brother and one sister. We all belong to the Brethren Church. I joined when Brother McFaden preached. Enclosed find ten cents for the Chicago Mission.

MARTHA A. MILLER.

(Accept our thanks for your dime.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—I like to help a good cause, so my little sister and I will each send ten cents for the Chicago Mission. My papa and mama belong to the Brethren Church. I stay with my grandpa and grandma Stutzman in the summer and in the winter I go home to go to school. My grandma is sick now. I hope she will soon be well again. I will ask a question. How old was Adam when he died?

DANIEL BOMGARDNER.

Mineral Point, Pa.

(Accept our thanks for your donation.—ED.)

Dear Editor :—Seeing a request for the children to give ten cents each for the Chicago Mission, I will write a letter and send twenty cents for my little sister and myself. Her name is Lurinda May. William Miller is our pastor. He is a young man and a very good preacher. We intended to have a Christmas entertainment but owing to a few cases of scarlet fever we may not have it.

Dear Editor :—As I have not written a letter for the children's column for some time, I will write. I go to school every day that I can. Our Sunday-school has now closed. I am very sorry, and I hope it will revive in the spring. I will answer Emma Cook's question. Solomon's mother was Bathsheba. I will close by asking a question. Who commanded the sun and moon to stand still?

ETHEL LYDICK.

Indiana, Pa.

Dear Editor :—My name has never appeared in your columns before. But I will try to aid the little ones. I am twelve years old. I have two brothers and one sister. I am the oldest. Papa and mama belong to the Brethren Church. I love to attend church. My school teacher's name is Miss M. F. Long. She is a member of the Brethren Church. I like her very well. We have no Sunday-school here now and we attend the M. E. I will answer a question. Bathsheba was the mother of Solomon. II Samuel 12:24.

Dear Editor :—This is my first letter to the EVANGELIST. I go to school and Sunday-school. I will soon be eight years old. Mama went to the State Conference at Loree. I stayed at my grandma's. I will send ten cents for the Mission Work. I will ask a question. What verse in the Bible contains every letter in the alphabet except J? I will answer a question. The shortest verse in the Bible is "Jesus wept." John 11:35

ETHEL SHILLINGER.

Dear Editor :—I am a little girl only four years old and my mama will write a letter for me. Papa has taken the EVANGELIST for five years and as he knows how good it is, says I may help to send it to some one in Chicago. If ten little girls send ten cents each they can get it a whole year. My mama has been very sick and I help her all I can by taking care of little sister and doing little errands. We are having plenty of snow and sleighing is good. How many little girls of my age know why we celebrate Christmas. Mama says it is Christ's birthday. I hope my little aunts and uncles in Kansas and Nebraska will see this and write for the EVANGELIST and help to swell the paper fund.

MARGIE JUDY.

Springdale, Wash.

(We are very glad to receive a letter from such a little girl. We thank you for the amount sent for Chicago Mission. Will you write again?—ED.)

Dear Editor :—I was appointed by our instructor to write a letter. We have a birthday money box in our K. C. class. When one's birthday comes, he puts in the box as many pennies as he is years old. That is the way we intend to make up three dollars for the Chicago Mission. Some of us have already given something. Lucile Gleny, Ada Shawlis and myself each send ten cents. Of course ten cents isn't much. But if we all send that much it will amount to a very nice sum. Our pastor, J. L. Gillin, is at Hudson, Iowa, holding a meeting. We miss him so much. We have a good preacher in his place, Brother E. Hildebrand. We like him so much. I have more to write but do not like to take up so much space.

MATA L. MILTER.

Waterloo, Iowa.

(You have chosen a very good plan by which to make some money for mission work. I attended a Sunday-school where that same plan was used. We thank you ever so much for what you have given toward Chicago Mission. Will you write again?—ED.)
